Don Strange, who works as a vet in northern England,  $(1) \dots$  a busy life. As well as having to  $(2) \dots$  pets which are unwell, he often visits farms where problems of various kinds await him. He has  $(3) \dots$  count of the number of times he has been called out at midnight to give  $(4) \dots$  to a farmer with sick sheep or cows. Recently, a television company chose Don as the subject of a documentary programme it was making about the life of a country vet. The programme showed the difficult situations Don  $(5) \dots$  every day. It also showed Don  $(6) \dots$  a meeting with villagers  $(7) \dots$  about the damage a new road might  $(8) \dots$  to their local environment. Viewers loved the documentary and, overnight, Don became a household name, known to millions of people. He continues to receive large numbers of letters which make a real impression on him, especially those from teenagers who have  $(9) \dots$  the important decision to become vets themselves as a  $(10) \dots$  of seeing the programme.

Прочитайте текст. Выберите один из предложенных вариантов ответа. Заполните пропуск (3).

1) lost 2) wasted 3) missed 4) spent