- 1. TV documentary maker and environmental Campaigner Sir David Attenborough has perhaps done it
- 2. more rather than any other British person to educate the public about the natural world. Fascinated
- 3. by animals since its childhood, he did a degree in Natural Sciences at Cambridge University, and
- 4. a few years quite later became a trainee producer at the BBC. In the 1950s, he was one of the
- 5. first people to film animals in their own habitats for television, and far quickly got a lot of positive
- 6. attention because of the quality of his programmes. To being reward Attenborough for his excellence,
- 7. the BBC offered him a job such as the head of one of its TV channels, but he wasn't interested.
- 8. In 1972, he returned to programme-making, and travelled the world as well his projects became
- 9. even more ambitious. A number of newly discovered both plant, insect and bird species have been 10. named in his own honour. He's thought to be one of the most well-travelled people on the planet.
