

1. As a child grows up, should his parents sit by himself and do nothing if he makes bad choices
2. or does something wrong? Or should parents can make sure their children make the right
3. choices? Though parents may consider themselves wiser enough, do they always know what's
4. best? While we frequently see programmes on TV about lots teenagers and their uncontrolled
5. behaviour, according to scientists, the average family that actually has a much more peaceful
6. experience. Many teenagers get on well with their parents, who find few time to listen to them.
7. Teenagers often improve their relationship with their parents as they have grow up, taking
8. on their ideas and values. While the teenage years may sometimes to be stressful for the
9. whole family, this is certainly does not always the case. Parents often take pleasure in their
10. children's achievements, and each teenagers continue to find the support in their parents.

Прочитайте текст. Из строки (2) выпишите ОДНО лишнее слово.