

I dream of living in a small, stylish modern flat in a historic old building near the centre of a large city such as Paris or Vienna. This would be quite different from the small suburban house where I live (1) ... present. It would be conveniently close (2) ... theatres, art galleries and the best shops. I don't need a large flat because I'd live (3) ... my own. It would be in a quiet street lined with trees which flower in spring.
