

I went on holiday to Italy recently. I had a lovely time and I didn't cook at all for a change. Normally, I make all my meals at home, so it was nice to go out to restaurants for breakfast, lunch and dinner. But on the last day, something funny happened. I was at a restaurant reading the menu. The menu was all in Italian and I thought I had ordered a small tomato pasta, but I had ordered a huge family-sized pasta dish (1) ... mistake. It had chillies on it too! As a matter (2) ... fact, it was so spicy that I felt like my mouth was (3) ... fire! It was delicious but I couldn't finish it all.
